With reference to:

<http://sta.education.gov.uk/>

All applicants must have successfully completed the NCTL Skills Tests prior to starting teacher training courses.

Prior to receipt of application

- All applicants are strongly encouraged, wherever possible, to successfully complete both numeracy and literacy skills tests prior to the provider considering the application.
- Otherwise, applicants must have booked to sit the tests on applying through UCAS TT.

Assessing applications

- Applicants who have passed their skills tests will be at an advantage.
- Applicants who have booked their skills tests and have strong applications will be invited to interview and will be considered, even if the skills tests have not yet been passed.

Conditions of Offer (skills tests)

- If an offer has been made with 'skills test completion' as a condition then this must be met by the deadline set in the offer letter. If the condition has not been met by the deadline the offer will be reconsidered and may be withdrawn.
